

MAVERICK
Technology Transformation Partners

Model: MV-N013

CENTRAL VENOUS INJECTION TRAINER-TORSO MODEL

Key Features

CENTRAL VENOUS INJECTION TRAINER-TORSO MODEL

A quality torso manikin to allow practicing of central intravenous access techniques for both advance cardiac life support and trauma situation

General features:

- Highly realistic with natural resistance and flashback of blood during needle insertion.
- Self healing skin with no leakage and leaves no marks
- Injection sites at the neck and femoral area have replaceable pads with realistic feel
- Carotid and femoral artery pulse can be simulated by manually pressing an attached rubber ball;

Skills-

For training of insertion of central line catheters in various techniques

Has anatomically correct arteries and veins in the neck and femoral area.

Allows for correct placement of central line at the following veins

- External jugular
- Internal jugular
- Subclavian
- Femoral

Accessories- Supplied with

- 1 replaceable neck pad,
- 1 replaceable femoral pad ,
- 250 ml bottle of simulated blood,
- User manual
- Carrying case